1. Hearing for Application for a Personal Licence Holder

The Board considered a report by the Depute Clerk that informed of an Application for Personal Licence holder from Mr Foote, who had a relevant conviction that required to be considered by the Board.

The Solicitor introduced the report and advised that Mr Foote was off island and could not attend but today's meeting, but he had provided a letter in support of his application, which the Solicitor circulated, attached as Appendix 1a. The Chair allowed Members time to read the supporting letter.

In noting the content of the letter the Board considered the length of time since the conviction listed, that he had not come to the attention of the police since that time and that the Personal Licence would allow Mr Foote to work at the Whiteness and Weisdale Hall, as a volunteer.

Mr C Smith moved that the Board approve the grant of a Personal Licence to Mr Foote. Mr Cooper seconded, noting that although Mr Foote had not been able to attend in person he had provided a fulsome note to the Board.

The meeting concluded at 10.15am.
