

SHETLAND CORE PATHS PLAN

Area Proposal - Yell1-5

Key facts
 Number of routes: 5
 Total distance: 24km
 Total population: 957

CPPY01: Brekon Coastal
 Difficulty: moderate
 Surface: mixture of grass and sand
 Nature designation: SSSI
 Attraction: the route is archaeologically important due to its Viking period graves along the beach. It is also a biodiversity route, important because of its dune flowers, great views, seals and birds.

CPPY02: Littlester Loch
 Difficulty: easy
 Surface: mainly grass but can become boggy during winter months
 Attraction: this is a gentle circular community route that can be accessed by several points within the village of Buravoe.

CPPY03: Gloop Coastal
 Difficulty: moderate to locally challenging.
 Surface: heather then single track road
 Attraction: Gloop fishing memorial and coastguard lookout hut. It is also a biodiversity route, important because of its great views, seals and birds.

CPPY04: Cullivoe to Basta Voe
 Difficulty: moderate to locally challenging
 Surface: gravel and grass track
 Attraction: this route includes 3 steep inclines. This route links two communities together being the original single track road between the two.

CPPY 05: White Wife to Aywick
 Difficulty: moderate
 Surface: heather and grass leading to a single track road
 Attraction : circular coastal route leading to a single track road. The White Wife statue that commemorates a German shipwreck can be seen along the route.

Yell has a rich fishing past and has several heritage and historical points of interest, in particular two memorials. The core paths within Yell support the significance of the island's past for the community and visitors alike.

Please see more detailed maps on following pages.

--- Core Path

SHETLAND CORE PATHS PLAN

Area Proposal - Yell1,3&4

Key facts
 Number of routes: 5
 Total distance: 24km
 Total population: 957

CPPY01: Brekon Coastal
 Difficulty: moderate
 Surface: mixture of grass and sand
 Nature designation: SSSI
 Attraction: the route is archaeologically important due to its Viking period graves along the beach. It is also a biodiversity route, important because of its great views, seals and birds and dune flowers.

CPPY3: Gloop Coastal
 Difficulty: moderate to locally challenging.
 Surface: heather then single track road
 Attraction: Gloop fishing memorial and coastguard lookout hut. It is also a biodiversity route, important because of its great views, seals and birds and dune flowers.

CPPY04: Cullivoe to Basta Voe
 Difficulty: moderate to locally challenging
 Surface: gravel and grass track
 Attraction: this route includes 3 steep inclines. This route links two communities together being the original single track road between the two.

Yell has a rich fishing past and has several heritage and historical points of interest, in particular two memorials. The core paths within Yell support the significance of the island's past for the community and visitors alike.

Shetland Islands Council Licence Number 100024344. 2008. This map is reproduced from Ordnance Survey material with the permission of Ordnance Survey on behalf of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office © Crown Copyright. Unauthorised reproduction infringes Crown copyright and may lead to prosecution or civil proceedings.

Date June 2008
 Scale 1:20000

SHETLAND CORE PATHS PLAN

Area Proposal - Yell2&5

Key facts
 Number of routes: 5
 Total distance: 24km
 Total population: 957

CPPY02: Littlester Loch

Difficulty: easy
 Surface: mainly grass but can become boggy during winter months
 Attraction: this is a gentle circular community route that can be accessed by several points within the village of Burravoe.

CPPY 05: White Wife to Aywick

Difficulty: moderate
 Surface: heather and grass leading to a single track road
 Attraction: circular coastal route leading to a single track road. The White Wife statue that commemorates a German shipwreck can be seen along the route.

Yell has a rich fishing past and has several heritage and historical points of interest, in particular two memorials. The core paths within Yell support the significance of the island's past for the community and visitors alike.

Shetland Islands Council Licence Number 100024344. 2008. This map is reproduced from Ordnance Survey material with the permission of Ordnance Survey on behalf of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office © Crown Copyright. Unauthorised reproduction infringes Crown copyright and may lead to prosecution or civil proceedings.

Date June 2008

Scale 1:20000