Note 1:

Section 29(6)(a) of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 intimates that a variation to the Layout Plan of a Premises qualifies as a minor variation only 'if the variation does not result in any inconsistency with the operating plan'. Since the Operating Plan contained within the Premises Licence reflects the relevant 'on sales' and/or 'off sales' capacity figures, a variation to the layout of the premises will only be considered 'minor' if the changes do not increase the capacity figures.

If an application to vary the Layout Plan is submitted to the Licensing Board as a minor variation then Licensing Staff may seek clarification from Building Control Officers before the application is accepted. Only once the Board are satisfied that the application is for a minor variation will said application be lodged.

Note 2:

The Licensing (Minor Variations) (Scotland) Regulations 2011 prescribe the following additional forms of variation as minor variations:

- (a) where the name of the premises is disclosed in the premises licence, any change in that name;
- (b) a temporary or permanent reduction in the licensed hours which does not result in the premises opening any earlier or closing any later than stated in the premises licence and operating plan;
- (c) in relation to the access of children or young persons onto the premises any variation to the operating plan so as to –
 - i. increase the minimum age at which children or young persons may be allowed onto the premises;
 - ii. reduce the times at which children or young persons are allowed onto the premises;
 - iii. restrict the access of children or young persons to certain parts of the premises;
- (d) any reduction in the capacity of the premises whether resulting from a variation to the layout plan or otherwise;
- (e) any variation resulting in cessation of the provision of live or recorded music at a decibel level exceeding 85 decibels;
- (f) any variation to provide that, when the premises are fully occupied, more customers are likely to be seated than standing.

Note 3:

Please refer to Paragraph 5 of the Premises Licence (Scotland) Regulations 2007 regarding the format of Layout Plans.

Note 4:

The appropriate premises licence (including summary licence, operating plan and layout plan) must be returned to the Licensing Authority in order that the licence documents can be updated to reflect the details of the variation. If you are in possession of the appropriate Premises Licence but unable to provide said licence with this application, you must ensure the licence is forwarded to the Licensing Authority within 14 days in order to complete the process of variation.

Please note also that once the variation is completed, any certified copies of the appropriate Premises Licence must also be updated to reflect the details of the variation.
