

DA LIGHTHOUSES

Da Lighthooslys bidp in an auld lighthouse Humans dunna keyn dey exist. Bits o' da lighthouse hit fa' an doon becose da babies lik tae jump on it!

Da Lighthooslys look lik peepie Lighthooses
We wan stipe on dem dat is dit mooth.
Lots o' dem bidp depe. Da babys sook dummies.

Wan spring day when da tattie crops wit ripe some adult Lighthooslys wit going tae dell up dit tatties near tae a burn.
Wan tattie wis so muckle and heavy dat when Bertha thied tae dell it up. She fell owet and keeled Alec ower we het. Dey fell in tae da burn! Da burn had a strong current so dey wit swept away too fast for anybody tae notice.

Back at da lighthouse da babies wit busy jumping on da foos. James, wan o' da adults hated when da babies did dis so he tout he wid go tae da shop tae buy a trampoline for dem. He kennt dat da trampoline wid be heavy so he ca'ed on da idder adults tae help him. He den noticed dat Alec and Bertha wit na depe.
He tout dey wit likely still at da tattie rig so he joost geed tae da shop in his cat we twa idder adults.

When dey got tae da shop dey noticed Alec and Bertha getting washed doon da burn! James kennt dat dit wis fasts near da shop so he quickly geed tae da fasts and pushed wan oot ta'e dem. He tought da problem wis fixed den so he geed and bowt da trampoline but da problem wisn a fixed becose dey wit still riding doon da burn but on a fast.

Dey floated ta'e a quarry w'e lots o humans digging. Dey heard da folk spiking a boot demolishing dit lighthouse to mak a muckle mansion. Dey wit saying it had ta'e be biggit dere as da land wis flat and dey didna hiv enough money ta'e dig trooda killy ground.
Wan o da folk wis digging vety hard so his shovel scooped dem up and th'ew dem back ta'e dit lighthouse. What dey landed on da roof it wis lucky dat da babies wit playing on da new trampoline so dey didna squish dem but James wis vety tith because Alec and Betha made da biggest crack in da light hoose! Alec and Betha th'ied ta'e tell everywan whit dey had heard do folk at da quarry saying but James wis fliting a't dem so much dat nobody could hear!

Alec and Betha realised dey w'p'e late for dit job looking for gold at da burn w'e a pan and sieve so dey huttied aff back ta'e da burn at da fig.

When dey got ta'e da burn no wan wis dere.
At first dey thought dat da job must hiv been feenished but Alec looked at his watch and it wisn a feenished. Dey thought dat James must hiv tellt da idder lighthouseys dat it wis too dangerous ta'e work at da burn.

Alec and Bertha peed back tae da lighthouse tae aks James what da new goldrig wis but he wis still flitting at dem.

Dey peed ass looking for an idder gold rig when dey saw lots of diggers going tae da lighthouse so dey turned a boot and followed dem. James started tae hear da diggers coming. He looked oot side and saw da babies still on da trampoline. James shouted tae aa da idder adults about whit wis happening.

Alec and Bertha wit back and trying tae get da babies ass da trampoline but dey couldna so dey had tae catty da babies on da trampoline awaysae da diggers. Dey den saw some lighthouselys working at a new gold rig so dey warned dem about da diggers. Da lighthouselys at da gold rig huttied away and Alec and Bertha wit joost about tae run away too when dey saw a muckle gold nugget going doon da burn! Dey grabbed a sieve and pan and got da gold nugget. Dey suddenly had an idea, maybe if dey put da gold neat da digger da humans wid fin it and use dat tae dig up da hills instead to big da mansion. Da folk in da diggers noticed da shiny gold on da ground so dey did exactly dat! Da lighthouse wis safe!

Da lighthouselys aa had a joy tae celebrate. Even James wis happy for wance!
