7.0 FINANCES

Independent Examined Accounts 2021/22

Mr M Duncan has replied to the submitted accounts advising that £1000 (from 2019/20) will have to be repaid as this was requested to be added to last years Community Development Fund grants, but the money was not spent as there was a lack of applications for the funding. The surplus from the Core Grant and the £45 underspend in the Community Development Fund grant can be retained.

Shetland Community Benefit Fund Grant Applications

Dogs Against Drugs applied for £2,500. It was decided not to award any money to this applicant. The Community Council are prioritising applications for the local area and will not support revenue based applications.

Mind Your Head applied for £650. It was decided not to award any money to this applicant. The Community Council are prioritising application for the local area and will not support revenue based applications.

Shetland Islands Games Association applied for £900. This was agreed in full.
