Planning	No Planning Requests.
Finance Report	The Financial Report dated 13 th March 2024 was distributed to members. Accounts showed income and expenditure.
Any other Business	a) Bryan and Joanne attended the Association of Community Council (ASCC) meeting which discussed place planning. Where Pete Mogridge from planning gave a talk to those attending about local place plans. The plan is that a toolkit will be given to each Community Council to help them to produce a place plan if they wish to do so, this will be registered with planning and will be considered for any future development in that area. Members discussed what this could mean to Sandwick and that they would be interested in looking at the toolkit to see if they can progress with a Local Place Plan. An update on the Shetland Way was given that there would be no significant infrastructure plans while adding this into Shetland. The Shetland Way is a walking path that is being planned throughout Shetland. b) The Climate Change Strategy team at the council would be willing to attend a Community Council meeting to discuss Shetland Climate Change Strategy.

- c) Members discussed the shortfall in funding for the Sandwich History Group who are wishing to clean up and maintain the two War Memorials at Sannick Kirk Yard. Clerk to contact Sandwich History Group with information on additional funding to help.
