ZetTrans	Elaine Park and Chereyynn Wiseman from Shetland Island Council attended meeting to discuss the ZetTrans Shetland public and school business case, Part of this business case is stakeholder and community engagement. ZetTrans currently has 28 timetabled bus services, and 30 Dial-a-ride Services which are operated by 15 different operators across Shetland. The Service 6 which runs from Sumburgh Airport to Lerwick currently runs 15 services a day in each direction Monday to Friday. Elaine Explained the process for the project which sees a review and data analysis, stakeholder engagement, strategic business case, outline business case and then final business case. Elaine expressed the importance of reaching as many people in the communities as possible so they could hear what is working, what is not working and what people would like to see. The more information they have the more they can outline how the service will look in the future. We would urge everyone to complete the online survey which can be found at: - www.zettrans.org.uk Elaine and Chereyynn left at 8:20pm

Any other Business

- a) Gardening Competition has now been judged, as there were no Junior nominations members decided to award a first and second prize. First prize was awarded to Kay Riise and second prize to Diane Young. Members were impressed with all the entrants to the competition and felt that there were many gardens in Sandwick that deserve recognition.
- b) Members discussed the school polytunnel which is still due to be built, members are keen to see this built, so that it can benefit the school and pupils.
